CASE NUMBER: 4:12-cr-177-05

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The Defendant shall participate in a chemical dependency treatment program as approved by the supervising probation officer.
2. The Defendant shall participate in a program aimed at addressing specific interpersonal or social areas, for example, domestic violence, anger management, financial counseling, or cognitive skills.
3. The Defendant shall participate in mental health treatment/counseling as directed by the supervising probation officer.
4. The Defendant shall totally abstain from the use of alcohol and illegal drugs or the possession of a controlled substance, as defined in 21 U.S.C. Section 802 or state statute, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner. The Defendant shall totally abstain from any use of inhalants.
5. The Defendant shall not frequent establishments where alcohol is the primary item of sale.
6. The Defendant shall submit to drug/alcohol screening at the direction of the U.S. Probation Officer to verify compliance. Failure or refusal to submit to testing can result in mandatory revocation. Tampering with the collection process or specimen may be considered the same as a positive test result.
7. The Defendant shall be prohibited from opening any new lines of credit without the prior approval of the supervising probation officer.
8. The Defendant shall disclose their financial situation at the request of the supervising probation officer.
9. As directed by the Court, if during the period of supervised released the supervising probation officer determines the Defendant is in need of placement in a Residential Re-Entry Center (RRC), the Defendant shall voluntarily report to such a facility as directed by the supervising probation officer, cooperate with all rules and regulations of the facility, participate in all recommended programming, and not withdraw from the facility without prior permission of the supervising probation officer. The Court retains and exercises ultimate responsibility in this delegation of authority to the probation officer. See United States v. Kent, 209 F.3d 1073 (8th Cir. 2000).
10. The Defendant shall not contact the victim by any means, including in person, by mail or electronic means, or via third parties without written permission of the Court. If any contact occurs, the Defendant shall immediately leave the area of contact, and immediately report the contact to the probation officer.
11. The Defendant shall submit their person, residence, workplace, vehicle, computer, and/or possessions to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer based upon evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation, additional criminal charges, and arrest. The Defendant shall notify any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
12. The Defendant shall participate in a program or course of study aimed at improving educational level or employment skills, for example, obtain a GED, participate in or complete a vocational training program, or participate in a literacy program.
